Hello, everyone!

EVEN is crazy busy and I am emailing you because we can use a variety of volunteers of all kinds.

Sorry to keep asking for help, but you know... "if you don't ask, the answer is always no."

I know you are all busy with jobs and families and your lives, but please let us know if you can offer any of your talents and skills for long-range, short-range, specific dates, specific jobs, general help, long-term, one-time, anything! Specifically, we need office management help, writers, IT, graphic designers, computer-savvy, info tablers, pamphleters, and much more. Whatever talents you have, I'm certain we might find a place for them here.

Most importantly, other than your specific skills, we look for people who are RELIABLE and show up, will return phone calls, answer emails, and write things down, and who do what they say and say what they do, of course. But also folks who are friendly, helpful and non-judgmental to others' lifestyles and diets. Does this sound like you?

If you are representing EVEN, in the office or at various EVENTS, we'd love it if you are in the full spirit of veganism and the compassion, non-violence and sustainability focus EVEN emphasizes. We are not the vegan police, but appreciate it if your heart is in the right place.

If you take a look at EVEN's calendar, you can see how busy we are, and if you take a look at the What EVEN Does page, you can see the breadth of what we do. And those lists are partial!

Since 2005, EVEN has been working as a vegan resource and we have worked hard at that. So now we are large...much larger than we ever thought we'd be, and expanding yearly, monthly. And that is very good for the animals and people, too. That's where your help comes in.

We simply cannot continue this massive outreach and vegan education effort without additional help. We don't want to have to scale back, because that defeats the purpose of our push forward for all these years to advance the cause.

Please respond to this email and let us know if you can help us help the animals and the planet and people. We appear to all be on the same journey.

In gratitude,

Lin
