

Saving Animals and the Planet with Your Fork

Monday, 2/2/09, 7pm - sharp!, McNail-Riley House, 13th & Jefferson.
Erin Williams works for The Humane Society of the United States, the nation's largest animal protection organization. She is the co-author of Why Animals Matter: The Case for Animal Protection. The book offers an overview of industries that exploit animals---factory farms, experimentation, entertainment, the pet industry, fur, and sport hunting-and addresses the environmental and social justice effects of animal exploitation. The Eugene Veg Education Network (EVEN) is an official 501(c)(3) non-profit based in Eugene Oregon serving as a resource for those seeking information on a healthful, vegan lifestyle. EVEN's emphasis is one of non-violence, compassion and sustainability. Focus is on the interconnectedness of all life and how a plant-based diet benefits the earth, non-human animals, and the individual. EVEN's Mission Statement is to inform, educate & encourage our members---as well as the larger community---by providing access to pertinent information on veganism and its positive impact on the health of the planet and all its inhabitants. EVEN offers a different free educational presentation the first Monday of each month at 7pm at the McNail-Riley House, 601 W. 13th Av, Eugene, eugvedunet@comcast.net, 541-343-8055
