

Fanta gets a new home thanks to so many caring people, just one big heart and helpful hand after another. You all are terrific! Thank you!!

After weeks of many emails, phone calls, referrals, posts and visits, a God-send appeared. A wonderful vegan woman in Bend, who asks to remain anonymous, became a major catalyst doing a ton of leg work and successfully connecting Fanta with a loving, caring, permanent and absolutely perfect guardian for him. THANK YOU!

Eunhee and Marc express their most sincere gratitude and appreciation to all responders for helping.

Wow! Who doesn't love a story with a happy ending?! This is truly GREAT NEWS and a very happy conclusion! Thank you, everyone!

In Appreciation,
Lin

Family relocating overseas needs new home for adorable senior pup

Adopted from a rescue group in Korea 7 years ago, Fanta (11 or 12 now) quickly transformed into a beloved family member. Our children grew up with him and he is a mellow, sweet soul who will win your heart immediately.

He is very house trained and excellent at holding his "business" until he gets outside. (Usually we just open the door most days and he goes out back.) Today, at his easy-going age, Fanta enjoys laying around on the couch, a pillow on the floor or anywhere soft, and loves to be petted and caressed. Not a fan of large dogs, he gets along better with other smaller dogs, but likes to be the boss. He ignores cats after a few sniffs. He enjoys short walks, but has a limp from an old injury from his days on the streets of Seoul.

We usually let his coat grow out for winter and then shave him in May or June. He looks very good both ways. Now his coat length is somewhere in the middle. He is neutered, up to date on shots and micro-chipped.

Fanta loves people, and would make a great companion for someone with a similar energy level to his own. He is quite calm, but barks to alert when someone approaches the house. If he does bark at visitors, he really just wants a pat on the head to be acknowledged.

The people who bought our home will take possession on the 31st, so we anxiously await finding Fanta a new, safe and loving home. He is so very pleasant and good-natured, he will return your attention and affection a thousand fold.

Thank you very much!
