TEN PIGS RESCUED FROM MIDWEST FLOODS FIND PERMANENT REFUGE IN OREGON

Scio, Oregon – October 24, 2008 – Farm Sanctuary, which operates the largest rescue and refuge network for farm animals in North America, transported 10 rescued pigs to Lighthouse Farm Sanctuary in Scio, Ore. last weekend. The animals were rescued in June and July off a levee in Oakville, Iowa, where they were stranded without food, clean water or shelter amidst floods that ravaged the Midwest this summer. The rescue, which resulted in the recovery of more than 60 young pigs and breeding sows left behind by evacuated farmers, was the most ambitious of Farm Sanctuary’s 22-year history of saving lives.

Farm Sanctuary Brings Animals to New Home at Lighthouse Farm Sanctuary in Scio

Farm Sanctuary works to end cruelty to farm animals and promotes compassionate living through rescue, education and advocacy. We envision a world where the violence that animal agriculture inflicts upon people, animals and the environment has ended, and where instead we exercise values of compassion.

2 MESSAGES FROM PCRM
(Physicians Committee for Responsible Medicine)
~~~ Dear PCRM supporter,
Thanks to your calls and e-mails, the Society of Gynecological Oncologists announced last night that its “Hands-On Pig Lab,” which was intended to demonstrate electrosurgical tools on live pigs, has been canceled... >>MORE

~~~ The FDA has still not acted on a petition filed eight months ago by PCRM and a broad coalition of organizations representing scientists, doctors, and animal welfare activists calling on it to start requiring companies to use alternatives to animal testing whenever available. In the eight months since the FDA failed to act, upwards of 200,000 animals have been tortured or killed in experimental drug tests. And the suffering continues every day!... >>MORE

RATATOUILLE IN EUGENE – NOW OPEN FOR LUNCH!

You probably know Ratatouille opened in Eugene November 2007. But did you know that they are now open for lunch M-F from 11am - 2pm as well as for dinner TU-SA from 5pm - 10pm? Ratatouille offers 100% vegetarian, organic, gourmet (and mostly local) food. The fare is mostly vegan and all beverages are organic (espresso drinks, wine, beer, soda, teas). There is a kid’s menu for lunch with the option of pizza (vegan or vegetarian) or pasta (vegan or vegetarian). We hear the food is fantastic and the very friendly atmosphere is reminiscent of a Paris bistro. Average price for lunch is $7.95 and dinner (portions are large!) ranges $12-18. See you there! Ratatouille, 1530 Willamette, Eugene OR, 541-344-0203.

DAVID GABBE’S VEGETARIAN COOKING CLASS

David Gabbe’s 8/24/08 Vegetarian Cooking Class in Eugene gets rave reviews!
EVEN received this positive feedback about David’s class:

“I just wanted to thank you for promoting this event. I would not have known about it otherwise. I took the class and it was fantastic. I'm slowly transitioning from lacto-ovo veg to vegan and looking for new ways to cook without eggs & cheese. David's class was hugely helpful, educational, and fun. Thank you! Kelly Eastlund”.

Stay tuned for more classes by David Gabbe in the near future.

INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF THE POTATO
For all of us who love potatoes---and we're not talking the couch variety---for their nutritious, no-fat, high-fiber, high-carb value, as well as their versatility, this International Year of the Potato site will be particularly interesting. (Thank you Rich!!) The potato is being rediscovered as a nutritious crop that could feed an increasingly hungry world…

HAPPY DANCING!
We all have so many things for which to be grateful this year. And dancing surely must be one of them.

Dancing transcends culture, politics, religion, society---everything. Dancing is fun, dancing is primal, dancing is magical. Dancing, like Love, is a universal language.

How are Dance and this video related to Veganism, you might wonder? Well, as we have always stated, all life is interconnected.
We sent this video (Thank you, Lizzy!!) to a small, select group of about 100 last month and received an overwhelming, super-positive response to it. For those of you who missed this fabulous experience, we’d like to share it with you now.

The Eugene Veg Education Network (EVEN) is an official 501(c)(3) non-profit organization based in Eugene Oregon serving as a resource for those seeking information on a healthful, vegan lifestyle. EVEN’s emphasis is one of non-violence, compassion and sustainability. Focus is on the interconnectedness of all life and how a plant-based diet benefits the earth, non-human animals, and the individual. EVEN’s Mission Statement is to inform, educate & encourage our members---as well as the larger community---by providing access to pertinent information on veganism and its positive impact on the health of the planet and all its inhabitants. EVEN offers a free educational presentation the first Monday of each month at 7pm at the McNail-Riley House, 601 W. 13th Av, Eugene. eugvegedunet@comcast.net, 541-343-8055 www.eugeneveg.org Peace.
